

Planned Giving Supports Catholic Charities both now and into the future!

Planned Giving is truly the best way for you to leave a lasting legacy to ensure the vital mission of Catholic Charities. There are many planned giving opportunities available to you as our benefactor when planning your estate. The simplest and easiest is to name Catholic Charities in your will or trust. We urge you to consider this and other options today to ensure that our Catholic faith and values are available in our community for years to come.

For more information, visit the Catholic Foundation's Planned Giving resource pages online – <http://dosafplannedgiving.org/> or contact the foundation directly through the link below. Or you can contact Cliff Evans, Planned Giving Officer at:
